Charting a Course for Children & Families

About the Conference

The Florida Coalition for Children (FCC) advocates for the state's abused, abandoned, neglected and at-risk children and supports the agencies and individuals who work on behalf of foster and adoptive children and families.

Its member agencies care for nearly 50,000 children and families in crisis each year by providing services and programs, like counseling, prevention and diversion programs, foster care, adoption services and much more.

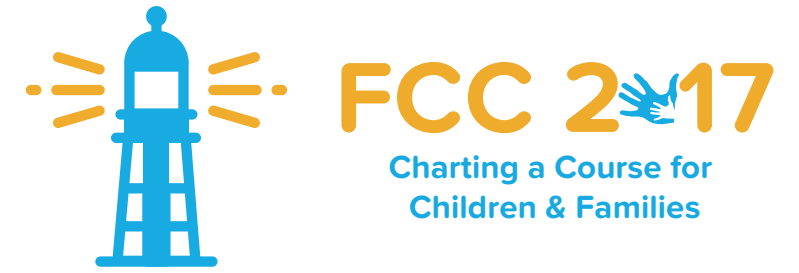

The Florida Coalition for Children Foundation (FCCF), is an integral part of FCC's mission providing numerous services to members including training opportunities, information on best practices and up-to-date news valuable to those who are providing care for this vulnerable population.

The ultimate vision and goal of the Coalition is to see a child welfare system in Florida that is fully resourced, well managed and fulfills the needs of these vulnerable children and families.

Each year the Foundation hosts a conference with the goal to educate its members in hopes of better serving these vulnerable children and families.

Aside from furthering education and awareness, we also like to encourage and uplift our hardworking members, like our child welfare caseworkers. They get to work early, stay late and spend their own money and time in some of the worst neighborhoods protecting children whose parents struggle to take care of themselves let alone their children.

We also celebrate the many foster and adoptive parents and families at the conference by providing educational opportunities for parents and activities for their children.

By sponsoring the 2017 Annual Conference you are providing training and networking opportunities to a wealth of participants working every day in the child welfare field including, foster and adoptive parents and families, caseworkers, agency executives, doctors, lawyers, judges, counselors and education experts. The education and awareness this conference provides is helping create a safer and more experienced child welfare system in Florida.

This year's conference is expected to see over 800 attendees, 30 exhibitors and provide access to over 20 continuing education units. It will be held on July 24 - 26, 2017 at the Boca Raton Resort and Club.

Your sponsorship can make this year's conference the best yet and provide our most deserving child welfare workers and foster and adoptive families the opportunity of a lifetime.
